The U

Administration

PRESIDENT DONNA E. SHALALA

Donna E. Shalala became the fifth President of the University of Miami on June 1, 2001. President Shalala is an accomplished scholar, teacher, and administrator whose career has been marked by a variety of leadership positions reflecting her interest in young people. While attending college, she played tennis and still plays a competitive game of doubles. She also enjoys golf, skiing, and other outdoor activities.

In 1987, President Shalala, a distinguished political scientist, became chancellor of a Big Ten university, the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She led what was then the nation's largest public research university. In 1992, Business Week magazine named her one of the top five managers in higher education, and in 2005 was named one of "America's Best Leaders" by U.S. News & World Report and the Center for Public Leadership at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government. President Shalala's success at Wisconsin was reflected in athletics as well. She hired a new football coach, recruiting Barry Alvarez from Notre Dame. Four years later, Wisconsin won the Big Ten football championship and represented its conference in the Rose Bowl for the first time in 30 years. President Shalala served on the first Knight Commission, a committee to review college athletics, and has served on the board of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Foundation. In May 2008, she was selected as an Independent Director of the U.S. Soccer Federation.

In 1993, she was named U.S. Secretary for Health and Human Services (HHS) and served for eight years, becoming the nation's longest-serving HHS Secretary. In 2000, she led the official U.S. delegation to the Olympics in Sydney, Australia. At the end of her tenure as HHS Secretary, The Washington Post described her as "one of the most successful government managers of modern times."

In 2007, U.S. President George W. Bush called upon her healthcare expertise to co-chair the Commission on Care for Returning Wounded Warriors, to evaluate how wounded service members transition from active duty to civilian society. In June 2008, President Bush presented her with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award, at a ceremony in the White House. The medal recognizes exceptional meritorious service to individuals who have contributed to national security, world peace, or cultural endeavors.

As president of the University of Miami, President Shalala presides over one of the most successful college athletic programs in the country. The Hurricanes football program has consistently ranked in the top of the polls. The baseball team has won four College World Series and the football team five national championships. Other Hurricanes sports, from tennis to track, have also earned national recognition. The football program was honored this year by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) for its latest Academic Progress Report score (APR). It was recognized as having posted a multi-year APR score in the top 10 percent.

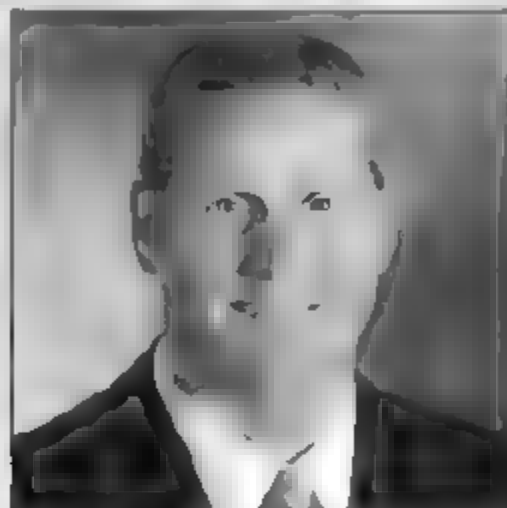

The Black Coaches Association honored her with its Image of Excellence Award for 2007.

As to her commitment to UM athletics, President Shalala said, "College sports are an exciting part of our students' overall experience while at the University and keeps them connected to their alma mater as enthusiastic alumni. The Hurricanes family reaches beyond the campus, into the community, and around the world. We should be very proud of our student-athletes' accomplishments both on and off the field, and I invite all loyal 'Canes to show their support and cheer their team and the U on." For a sports fan like President Shalala, there is no better place to call home than the University of Miami.

KIRBY HOCUTT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Kirby Hocutt is in his third year as the Director of Athletics at the University of Miami. Introduced as UM's 11th AD on Feb. 8, 2008, Hocutt began his tenure on June 1, 2008.

Hocutt, 38, came to Miami after serving as the athletic director at Ohio University since 2005. Prior to that, he spent six years at the University of Oklahoma serving as associate athletic director for external operations and sports administration.

In his first two years in Coral Gables, Hocutt has led the development and initiation of a strategic plan to ensure the University of Miami continues to be recognized among the top brands in the nation for athletic, academic and community excellence.

IN THE CLASSROOM

With a goal to be the national leader in both Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Rate (APR) rankings, the student-athletes at the University of Miami are just that – students first and athletes second.

Under Hocutt's direction in 2010, Miami recorded a program-best Graduation Success Rate of 86 percent, while all 18 teams excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate Report (APR). Led by the Hurricanes football program – who has posted a multi-year APR score in the top 10 percent – Miami finished sixth in the APR in 2010, and is the only Bowl Championship Subdivision (BCS) team among the 26 schools recognized that finished ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll and Associated Press Poll following the 2009 season. In addition, UM's football program was the co-recipient of the American Football Coaches Association's 2009 Academic Achievement Award, graduating 100 percent of its freshman football student-athlete class of 2002.

ON THE FIELD

Since taking the helm of the University of Miami's Department of Athletics, Hocutt has overseen $26 million in new projects, including the construction of a basketball practice facility, as well as upgrades to Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field, the Neil Schill Tennis Center and Cobb Stadium. Coral Gables is truly where the nation's best student-athletes become champions.

Hocutt continues to spearhead the development of a master plan for major facilities improvements, which will see the development of a new football training facility, an enhanced student-athlete academic center and a renovated and expanded athletic training room – all essential steps in taking a legendary program to a new caliber of excellence.

EXCELLENCE DEFINED

Over his two-year tenure, Hocutt has expected excellence not only from UM staff and student-athletes, but also himself. In his first year at Miami, two UM head coaches – Paige Yaroshuk-Tews (Women's Tennis) and Nicole Lantagne Welch (Volleyball) – earned Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year honors, while UM student-athletes have earned 31 All-America honors over his two seasons in Coral Gables. In 2010, Hocutt was recognized with Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal Forty Under 40 Award as one of the most promising young executives in sports business.

A former star linebacker at Kansas State,

Hocutt has a total of 19 years experience in intercollegiate athletics, including five as a student-athlete.

In Hocutt's three years at Ohio, the school won 11 team championships and four head coaches were recognized as conference Coaches of the Year. In 2006, the football team played in its first bowl game in 38 years. In addition, Hocutt's leadership led to an increase in fundraising by more than 75 percent, while increasing season ticket sales in football by 112 percent and in men's basketball by 50 percent.

At Oklahoma, Hocutt led the athletics fundraising to an all-time high in annual giving and capital campaigns. From 1998 to 2005, Oklahoma's annual giving increased from $3.4 million to more than $17 million. That 400 percent increase in annual giving was one of the highest percentage increases in intercollegiate athletics history.

Beginning in 1999, Hocutt served in a leadership position in the strategic planning and execution of Oklahoma's capital campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports. The campaign ended successfully in 2003, with more than $125 million raised.

Prior to joining the Oklahoma staff, Hocutt served as the coordinator of licensing at the NCAA. He began his career in sports administration as the assistant director of marketing and promotions at Kansas State University.

Hocutt was a four-year letterman at linebacker at KSU, leading the Big 8 Conference in tackles and earning All-Big 8 Conference team honors as a junior. In 1993, The Sporting News selected him as one of the top 20 underrated players in the nation. Hocutt also served as a team captain his senior season.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University in 1995 and his master's of education degree from the University of Oklahoma in 2001. He and his wife Diane have two sons, 8-year-old Drew and 6-year-old Brooks.

THE HOCUTT FILES

In addition to his responsibilities as the University of Miami Director of Athletics, Hocutt is in leadership roles with various committees both regionally and nationally.

- Orange Bowl Committee
- Miami-Dade Sports Commission Board of Directors
- Division 1-A Athletic Directors' Association Executive Committee
- ACC Committee on Infractions and Penalties
- ACC Committee on Sportsmanship

Compliance

Dear Prospective Student-Athlete

As a prospective student-athlete, you may have the athletic potential to play college basketball at the Division I level. If so, you probably will be exposed to an enormous amount of recruitment activities from universities throughout the country.

During the recruitment process, coaches will reference various NCAA rules and regulations. The rules are designed for to ease the pressures on prospective student-athletes and to level the playing field so that all universities operate within the same guidelines.

During the recruiting process you may have the following questions:

- When and how often can I visit an institution's campus?
- When, where and how often can a coach telephone me?
- How many times can a coach observe me in practice and/or competition?
- What academic criteria must I meet to be eligible to play Division I college basketball?

The answers to these questions and more can be obtained from the University of Miami Compliance Office or the NCAA by requesting the NCAA Guide for the College-Bound Student-Athlete. The guide may be provided to a prospective student-athlete at any time. The guide addresses issues related to Divisions I, II and III academic eligibility, financial aid, recruitment and more.

To receive a copy of the guide call the NCAA Hotline at 1-800-638-3731 or request it from the University of Miami coach who is recruiting you.

Please remember that since violations of NCAA rules during your recruitment could jeopardize your athletic eligibility, it is important for you and your parents to be informed and to ask questions throughout the recruiting process.

Best of luck and GO CANES!

Sincerely,

David Reed

Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance

A DIVISION I INSTITUTION MAY PROVIDE A RECRUIT WITH THE FOLLOWING PRINTED MATERIALS:

- General correspondence, including letters, U.S. Postal Service postcards and institutional note cards,
- Game programs, which may not include posters, and one Student-Athlete Handbook,
- NCAA educational information,
- Pre-enrollment information subsequent to signing a National Letter of Intent with the university;
- Official academic, admissions and student services publications published or videos produced by the institution and available to all students,
- Schedule and business cards,
- Questionnaires which may be provided prior to your junior year, and
- Camp brochures which may be provided prior to your junior year

What is a Prospective Student-Athlete (Prospect)?

You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you (or your family or friends) any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospective student-athletes.

There are two (2) ways to become a prospect if you have completed any of the following:

- (1) Officially register and enroll in a minimum full-time program of studies and have attended classes in any four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year (excluding summer); or (2) Participated in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term, or (3) Officially register and enrolled and attend classes during the summer prior to initial enrollment and receive institutional athletics aid

How do I know if I am being recruited?

A coach is recruiting you if they try to convince you directly, or through your family, to attend their school and participate in intercollegiate athletics. There are several ways to be recruited (1) a coach may provide you with an official paid visit to view the campus, (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus meeting with you (or your family), or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment.

Coaches and authorized institutional staff members are the only individuals who may recruit you. Representatives of athletic interests (boosters) may not call, write or make in-person contact with you anywhere for the purpose of recruiting you to a university and participating in athletics.

When can I visit a college campus?

In the sport of basketball, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning the first day of classes of your senior year.

In all other sports, a coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting with you, off the University's campus, beginning July 1 after your junior year.

Telephone Calls

In all sports other than football and basketball, a coach may call a prospect one time per week after July 1 following the completion of the prospect's junior year in high school.

In the sport of football, a coach may initiate one telephone call to a prospect between April 15th and May 31st of the prospect's junior year. Additional calls are not permitted prior to September 1st of the beginning of the prospect's senior year in high school.

In the sport of men's basketball, coaches may make one telephone call per month from June 15 of the prospect's sophomore year through July 31 of the junior year. Beginning August 1 of the senior year a coach may make two telephone calls per week. Only one call per week may be made to a two-year or four-year college prospect.

In the sport of women's basketball coaches may make one telephone call per month during the months of April (on or after the Thursday after the conclusion of the NCAA Division I Final Four) and May of the prospect's junior year in high school one telephone call between June 1 and June 20 and one telephone call between June 21 and June 30 of the prospect's junior year in high school. Three telephone calls to a prospect are permitted during the month of July, with no more than one call per week.

In the following circumstances unlimited calls to a prospect are permitted: (1) during the five days immediately preceding an official visit to the University of Miami, (2) on the initial date for signing the National Letter of Intent and the two days following the signing date, and (3) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with a prospect.

For all sports, coaches may receive telephone calls placed by a prospect at the prospect's expense at anytime, including before July 1 following the prospect's junior year in high school.

In sports other than men's basketball letters and recruiting information may be sent to you starting September 1 at the beginning of your junior year in high school. In men's basketball, recruiting materials may be provided starting June 15 at the conclusion of the prospect's sophomore year.

What is a Violation?

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent(s) or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of a greeting. NOTE: At the Division I level, athletic representatives (boosters) may not contact you for the purpose of recruiting.

What can a school offer me to attend their University?

You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangements such as cash, clothing, cars, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or to attend a NCAA school.

A University may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. The institution can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the University of Miami but this renewal is not guaranteed. In addition, they can offer you quality academic and medical support, as well as the opportunity to compete for one of the nation's top programs.

What can I do during this process?

Enjoy your high school years and work hard both in the classroom and in your sport. At the beginning of your junior year you should sign up for the NCAA Clearinghouse. Your high school guidance office can provide you with the information to register.

Strength & Conditioning

TODOR PANDOV ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Todor Pandov enters his first season as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at the University of Miami.

A 2003 graduate of Western Kentucky, Pandov spent the last two seasons as the strength and conditioning coach for his alma mater.

Pandov previously served on the Hurricanes' men's basketball staff as a graduate manager during the 2007-08 campaign when Miami advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to that, Pandov was an assistant coach at St. Edward's (Texas) and a volunteer at Texas, assisting the program during its 2005-06 campaign when the Longhorns went 29-6 and advanced to the NCAA's Elite Eight. While at Texas, he worked with Todd Wright, who is widely recognized as one of the top strength and conditioning coaches in the nation.

Originally from Plovdiv, Bulgaria, Pandov played three seasons for the Hilltoppers.

Following the conclusion of his collegiate career, Pandov played professionally for Eiffel Towers in Holland in 2004-05, earning All-Star honors.

He and his wife, Kimberly, have one son, Mason (2), who was born in Miami during Pandov's first stint with the Hurricanes.

The Hurricane strength and conditioning program operates under the guidance of head strength & conditioning coach Andreu Swasey. Known for his enthusiastic approach to weight training and the development of year-round sport-specific programs for each student-athlete, Swasey along with assistant strength coaches Cels Colas, Jimmy Golins, Victor Ishmael, Todor Pandov, and Andrew Kurb, ensures that Hurricane student-athletes are given the personalized instruction and tools to reach their full physical potential.

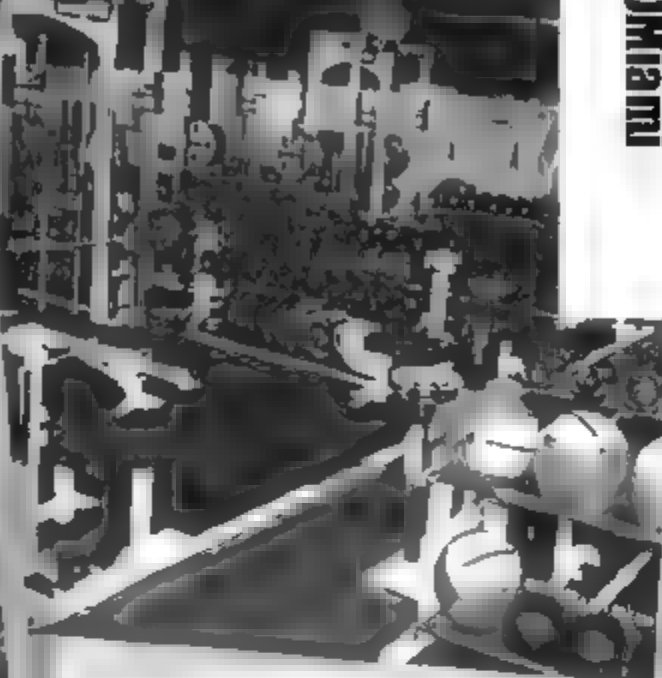

The goal of Miami's strength and conditioning program is to minimize injury risk and enhance all physical parameters, including strength, speed, power, flexibility and cardiovascular efficiency.

To help achieve this goal, the University added a $4.9 million weight room. The 12,000-square foot state-of-the-art facility houses 20 custom-designed weight lifting stations, 11 cardiovascular machines, a rowing station, a basketball and volleyball court and over 65,000 pounds of weights.

Each year when training begins, every Hurricane athlete's baseline data is collected and a weight-training program is designed. Under the guidance of the strength staff, each student-athlete's progress is closely monitored and documented.

UM athletes also have the use of the track at Sun Life Stadium. Known as one of the nation's top training tracks, it allows Hurricane student-athletes the opportunity to work on all facets of speed training.

Hurricane Traditions

THE HURRICANES

It began in controversy. Some reports say the players on the 1927 football team held a team meeting to select Hurricanes hoping they would sweep away opponents just as the devastating storm did on September 16, 1926. Another version holds that Jack Bell, a columnist for the old Miami News, asked end Porter Norris of the 1926 team what the team should be called. Told that the local dignitaries and University officials wanted to name the team for a local flora or fauna, Norris said the players wouldn't stand for it and suggested "Hurricanes" since the opening game had been postponed by such a storm.

THE FLORIDA ORANGE TREE

UM's school colors were selected in 1926. The colors of the Florida orange tree represent UM. Orange symbolizes the fruit of the tree, green represents the leaves and white, the blossoms.

THE 'U'

In 1973, UM's Athletic Federation, the fund-raising arm of the athletic department at the time, commissioned a local public relations expert to develop a distinctive logo. The University had gone several years with a variety of helmet and uniform changes and the Federation noted that a number of major colleges have the initials UM. Miami designer Bill Bodenhamer suggested the "U" idea, which lent itself to distinctive logos for each sport as well as slogans like "U gotta believe" and "U is great."

ADOPTING THE IBIS

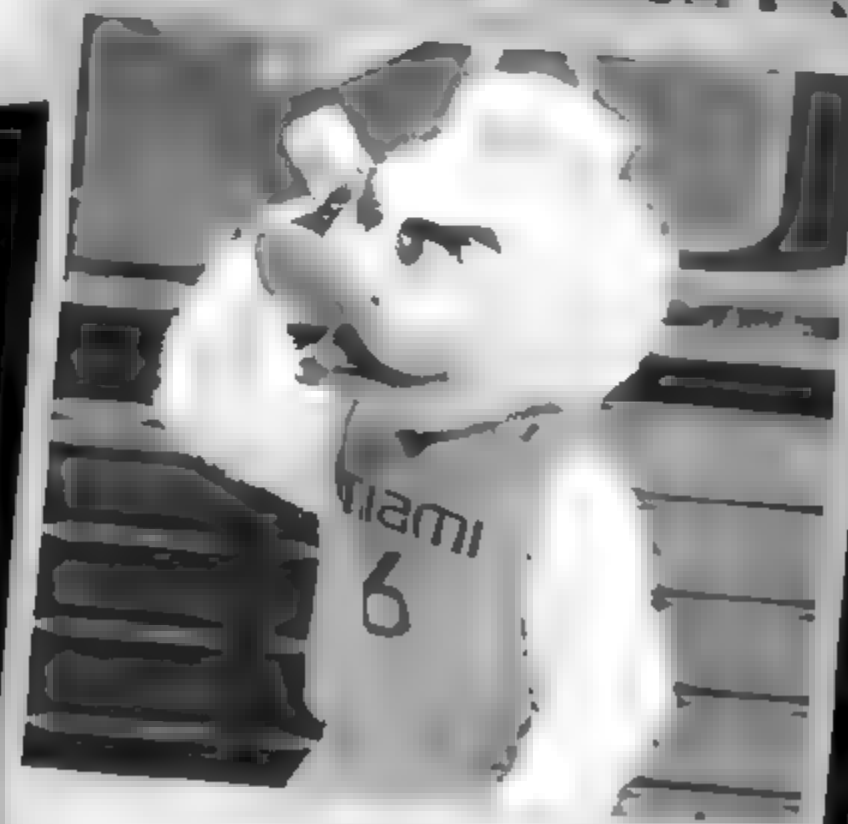

Folklore maintains that the ibis, a symbol of knowledge found in the Everglades and Egypt, is the last sign of wildlife to take shelter before a hurricane and the first to reappear after the storm. The local marsh bird was considered UM's first unofficial mascot when the school yearbook adopted the name "Ibis" in 1926. Its popularity grew among the students during the 1950s. In 1957, San Sebastian Hall, a residence hall on campus, sponsored an ibis entry in the homecoming celebration. The next year, student John Stormont performed at games in an ibis costume that was glued, sewn and pinned together and was the forerunner of today's bird. The ibis has become one of the most recognizable college mascots in the United States.

THE CHEERLEADERS

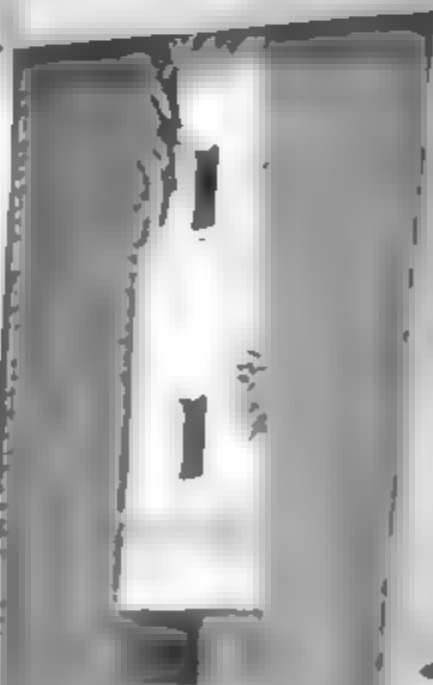

The University of Miami cheerleaders are the catalyst for school spirit. Along with cheering at both home and away athletic contests, the squads are a strong public relations arm for the University. The University of Miami has two squads: All-Girl and Co-Ed. Under the direction of head coach Beverly Hew, a former Miami cheerleader, both cheer squads are consistently rated among the nation's best.

THE SUNSATIONS

Now in their 24th year of entertaining fans, the University of Miami Sensations dance team is a squad of enthusiastic and talented performers. Their reputation for excellence has grown both locally and nationally. The Sensations, coached by former member Kristine Stephenson, perform at many charitable and community service events in addition to Hurricane football and basketball games.

The University of Miami is one of the largest, most comprehensive private research universities in the southeastern United States, with a well-earned reputation for academic excellence. City of Miami

PERFECT WEATHER IS ON

"Welcome to Miami—bienvenidos a Miami." With 84 miles of Atlantic coastline, yearlong sunshine and a boasted average daily temperature of 75 degrees, it is no wonder in his hit single, Will Smith dubbed Miami "the city where the heat is on."

THE BEACH IS THE BEAT

Thanks to South Florida's year-round, sports-friendly climate, Miami has a lot to offer in outdoor recreational activities. From some of the PGA's finest golf courses to almost 700 parks, there is something for everyone. With countless opportunities for kayaking, scuba-diving, fishing, beach volleyball, and rollerblading, there is no excuse for going without a tan.

South Florida truly has the perfect weather for sports and is one of only eight metropolitan areas in the United States that can boast of a professional franchise in each of the four major sports. The Major League's Florida Marlins had everybody "doing the fish" when they won the World Series in 1997 and 2003. The NFL's Miami Dolphins have thrilled fans for decades at SunLife Stadium, which hosted the Super Bowl in 1995, 1999 and 2007. Despite the warm weather, South Florida's own hockey team, the Florida Panthers, keep up on the ice. And for basketball fans, the 2006 NBA Champion Miami Heat keep things hot at the American Airlines Arena.

TRULY A MELTING POT

Truly a melting pot, Miami is home to a variety of cultures, creating a totally unique, vibrant cultural mosaic. With representatives of every Hispanic nation in the world, Spanish serves as a second language to most of Miami's residents. Little Havana is the heart of Miami's Cuban community, where churro vendors line the streets, the aroma of high-octane cafe Cubano fills the air and the spirit of friendly competition fills Domino Park.

The spirit of the Caribbean is alive in Little Haiti, where many Haitian artists, musicians and entrepreneurs got their start in Miami. The proud focal point of this neighborhood is the Caribbean Market, an open-air replica of Port-au-Prince's Iron Market, where Creole is the dominant language.

MOVIES AND MUSIC COMING

With tropical weather, a high-quality labor pool, low production costs and direct links to Latin America, Miami has become one of the most important entertainment centers in the world. Dubbed as the Latin-American Hollywood by the New York Times, such blockbusters as Big Trouble—written by Miami Herald columnist Dave Barry, Any Given Sunday, There's Something About Mary, The Bridge and Wild Things were all filmed in Miami.

A Hollywood favorite off-screen as well, Miami is home to dozens of celebrities and even more consider it a favorite weekend getaway. Gloria and Emilio Estefan's Star Island estate and Gianni Versace's Ocean Drive mansion-turned-museum are just a couple examples of Miami's celebrity appeal. It is not uncommon to spot Sean "Diddy" Combs or Jamie Foxx dancing at a South Beach club or former president Bill Clinton playing golf at the Biltmore Hotel.

Miami Hot Spots

For shopping, dancing or just plain people watching, Miami offers several places to see and be seen.

With over 800 buildings designed in the '30s and '40s, South Beach serves as the largest collection of Art Deco architecture in the world. Celebrity-owned restaurants, like Cameron Diaz's Bambu, night clubs such as Level—based on the format of New York's Studio 54—and a medley of huge anchor stores and unique boutiques create the flavor of Miami's most famous hot spot.

Coconut Grove, just a 10-minute drive from the University of Miami, is another student favorite. Built mainly by West Indian craftsmen brought in from the Bahamas, it still holds onto the Caribbean appeal its name suggests. Attracting writers, artists and non-conformists, this hub of the bohemian arts contributed to Miami's cultural renaissance. Fast forward a century and the Grove is still one of Miami's hottest nightspots, with more than 75 cafes, restaurants and clubs that line the streets.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI CAMPUS IS THE BEAUTIFUL

The University of Miami campus is located in Coral Gables, dubbed the "City Beautiful." Founded by George Merrick almost a century ago, the Gables is one of Miami's most beautiful areas. The palm-lined streets are all named after European villages, each one bordered by Old Spanish style homes.

Downtown Coral Gables is bustling with the many offices of multi-national corporations, while the city's central boulevard—Miracle Mile—is home to a wide array of designer boutiques and art galleries. One Gables favorite is the Venetian Pool, a beautiful swimming lagoon carved out of coral, which features cascading waterfalls and underwater caves.

10TH SEASON OVERALL
SIXTH SEASON AT MIAMI
DUKE '90

Katie Meier enters her sixth season as the head coach of the Hurricanes' women's basketball program in 2010-11. A well known and respected figure in women's basketball, Meier has worked tirelessly to put her mark on Miami's program and to build a winning tradition.

Hired on April 19, 2005, then UM Athletics Director Paul Dee announced the appointment of Meier in front of national and local media, fans, alumni and support staff, signifying the beginning of a new era.

Following an unprecedented career as one of the greatest athletes to ever play in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Meier quickly established herself in the coaching ranks. Upon her appointment at UM, following an impressive four-year tenure as the head coach at Charlotte where she helped bring the 49er program into national prominence, Meier made it clear that her goal is to make Miami one of the premier women's basketball programs in the country

CREATING A WINNING PROGRAM

In her first season, Meier wasted little time in making the first steps towards those goals. After receiving little attention in the ACC preseason polls, the Hurricanes posted an impressive overall record of 17-13. After fighting through a conference that would send nine teams to the postseason, including three to the NCAA Final Four, Miami finished with a sixth-place, 6-8 record in ACC play en route to earning a berth into the second round of the 2006 Women's National Invitation Tournament.

Throughout the season Miami posted wins over ranked teams such as Mississippi (No. 25), Boston College (No. 21) and Virginia Tech (No. 25)—and nearly knocked off then-No. 1 Duke in double-overtime. The Hurricanes also recorded wins over two eventual conference champions in Hartford (America East) and Oakland (Mid-Continent). Under her direction, standout Tamara James produced one of the greatest seasons ever seen by a UM player in 2005-06, including becoming the University's all-time leading scorer before being taken as the No. 8 overall pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft by the Washington Mystics.

In Meier's second season in 2006-07, the Hurricanes got off to a strong start, winning seven of their first eight games—including a 79-70 win over Indiana to claim the UM Thanksgiving Tournament title. On Dec. 1, Meier picked up her 100th career victory as the Hurricanes defeated Jackson State, 77-50. However, with only eight healthy players to call upon by the start of the ACC schedule, Miami faced challenge after challenge competing in a league that ranked among the top-three strongest women's basketball conferences nationally and produced two of the NCAA Tournament's four No. 1 seeds in 2006-07.

Regardless, Renee Taylor emerged as the ACC's leading scorer—upholding Miami's streak of producing the league's leading scorer in all three years it had been a member. The All-ACC Second Team selection set school records in single-game scoring with 42 points at Houston and became the 19th Hurricane to score at least 1,000 points—and just the sixth to do so in her first two seasons. In addition, transfer Maurita Reid emerged as a defensive threat, tying the school record with 10 steals versus Wake Forest and finishing among the ACC's leaders and NCAA's top 10 in steals per game.

The 2007-08 season, Meier's third with the Hurricanes, saw Maurita Reid continue her rise among the ACC elite. The senior was nothing short of impressive shooting beyond the arc and picking opponent's pockets. She hit four or more three-pointers on 10 different occasions and finished the season with 110 steals, good for second in the conference and fifth in the NCAA. The Queens, N.Y. native led the team in points (15.3 ppg) and rebounding (5.6 rpg) and was also named the ACC All-Defensive Team.

With a No. 21 incoming recruiting class, Meier and the Hurricanes saw significant improvement during the 2008-09 season. The freshman class was highlighted by McDonald's All-American Shenise Johnson—out of Henrietta, N.Y. and Riquana Williams—from nearby Pahokee, Fla.

Johnson lived up to the hype as she was the team leader on the season in points, rebounds, assists and steals. Under Meier's guidance, Johnson was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on three occasions and was named to the ACC All-Freshmen team as well as ACC Honorable Mention. The versatile guard, forward also led the U19 USA team to a gold medal finish in the 2009 World Championships in Bangkok, Thailand.

The 2009-10 season was one of the most successful in program history. Under Meier's vision, the Hurricanes advanced to the WNIT Championship game. Miami posted a 22-14 overall record - the first 20-win campaign since the 2002-03 season and just the eighth all-time.

In her sophomore season, Johnson was joined by a healthy Fiquna Williams and the duo racked up accolades throughout the season. Johnson was named First Team All-ACC, while Williams garnered second-team honors. The tandem led Miami to a 5-1 WNIT record - the deepest postseason run in team history - with both earning all-tournament honors along the way.

Following the 2009-10 campaign, University of Miami Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced that Meier signed a contract extension through 2015.

"We are excited about the tremendous progress our women's basketball team achieved this past season," said Hocutt. "Coach Meier continues to assemble a special group of talented young women at the University of Miami and we look forward to the future success of our program."

The Hurricanes enter the 2010-11 season with two legitimate All-America candidates and feature a talented supporting cast to make a run into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004.

BUILDING A TRADITION AT CHARLOTTE

Meier could solely be responsible for bringing the 49er women's basketball program into national prominence. Prior to her appointment as head coach at Charlotte in 2001, the 49ers had only one previous postseason appearance—a WNIT berth in 1990.

During her four-year tenure at Charlotte, Meier led the 49ers to three postseason berths—one NCAA Tournament appearance (2003) and two WNIT appearances (2004, 2005)—and a combined overall record of 76-45 (.628).

In her inaugural campaign at Charlotte, Meier led the 49ers to a 16-13 finish to record their first winning season in eight years.

The following season, she guided the 49ers to a 21-9 finish marking the most wins (21) in over a decade at Charlotte. With a 12-2 record in Conference USA play, Meier and the 49ers also earned the school's first-ever C-USA regular-season championship and earned the school's first-ever appearance at the NCAA Tournament.

In 2003-04, Meier and the 49ers concluded the season with a 17-14 record while earning a trip to the 2004 WNIT. Along with marking the first time in school history that the 49ers had made back-to-back postseason appearances, Meier also led Charlotte to their first-ever postseason victory with a 78-71 win over Clemson in the first round of the WNIT.

In 2004-05, she enjoyed an overall record of 22-9 to tie for the third-most single season wins in Charlotte history and the most wins for the program in a single season since 1990-91. The 49ers also advanced to the postseason for the third-consecutive season and the WNIT for the second-straight year.

Prior to Charlotte, Meier spent seven seasons at Tulane University, serving as an associate head coach from 1999-01 and an assistant coach on the Green Wave staff from 1994-99. As a member of the Tulane coaching staff, Meier helped the Green Wave to an overall record of 164-52 (.759) in seven seasons, including the highest ranking in school history (13th by the Associated Press) in 2000 and a school-record 27 wins the same season.

During her time at Tulane, Meier and the Green Wave also saw an impressive seven-year run at the NCAA Tournament.

Meier began her collegiate coaching career at the University of North Carolina at Asheville where she served as an assistant coach during the 1993-94 season.

ESTABLISHING HER LEGACY AS A PLAYER

Meier's success as a coach is a direct reflection of her playing career as a standout at Duke University. A four-year letterwinner for the Blue Devils under head coach Debbie Leonard from 1986-90, Meier's name is scattered throughout the Duke record books.

She currently ranks among the school's all-time career leaders in scoring average (16.2 points per game), steals (232), free throws made (447) and free throws attempted (624). She is also listed among Duke's leaders in career points (1,761), field goals made (653), field goals attempted (1,283), assists (409) and rebounding average (6.1 rebounds per game).

Coach's note: One of my favorite kids I've ever coached. she gives 100% effort everyday without complaint. Her athleticism is almost freaky and she uses that to do a lot of the dirty work for us. No one outworks Sylvia and no one brings more energy and vocal leadership and that's what makes her so special.

Coach's note: It is a blessing as a coach to have a player that can do every skill on both ends of the basketball court. If I ask her to get 10 steals, she will do it; 10 rebounds she will do it; 10 assists. Scoring is frankly one of the last things she even thinks about but she does that at a very high level as well. She has really grown as a person and really has become a special leader and a great mentor to our younger kids. Her competitiveness and desire to win at everything - whether it's a drill, a free throw contest, one-on-one, that's what drives her.

Coach's note: Bay is a prolific scorer, that is probably the main thing that stood out in her game last year. how she can just light up a scoreboard in a very short amount of time. I think people will be impressed with her over-all game this year. Her fitness and conditioning is very impressive and that is helping her defense and helping her move without the ball. Now she can change the game without having the ball in her hands

Coach's note: Morgan is the most improved player on our team from last year to this year. She has expanded and enhanced her game. I think it will show up across the stat sheet. She is a lot more focused and is bringing an incredible amount of intensity, but that best part of her maturation is the fact that she is demanding efforts from her teammates. She is only a sophomore but she is taking a leadership role

Coach's note: Nelly is a ball pressure guard who threatens the rim on the offensive end. Her athleticism earns her a lot of minutes but it is nice to see her mature into someone who is working hard to expand their role and is really invested in Miami.

Coach's note: She is ready for a larger role on the team. She earned the respect of the ACC last year as a freshman because she is so gritty and such a threat from the outside. She is bringing a lot more of a "floor general" mentality, which takes a lot of the pressure off of Bay and Moe. She has a high basketball IQ and now she can beat you in a lot of ways whether it be on the defensive or offensive end.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL: UM 78, NO. 13 FS

A VICTORY WORTH THE WAIT

'Canes mark first win in series since 2005 with cool confidence

By Shandel Richardson
STAFF WRITER

CORAL GABLES » The celebration was mild considering the circumstances.

There was a team gathering at midcourt. A few hugs. A few high-fives.

Nothing excessive, because the Miami Hurricanes women's basketball team felt it did what it was supposed to do in defeating No. 13 Florida State 78-70 Sunday at BankUnited Center. It was UM's first victory in the series since Jan. 27, 2005, a span of eight games. It was also the Hurricanes' first win against a Top 15 team in 19 years.

been anywhere in the top 25, but appearances, but appearances. U.M., which has lost its losing record the past three years, is 13-2 overall and 1-0 in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Guard Riquna Williams, who leads the ACC at 22.4 points a game, continued her strong season by scoring 27 points on 8 of 12 shots.

Riquna Williams had 15 of her 18 points in the second half, and the University of Miami women's basketball team defeated host Alabama-Birmingham 70-54 on Saturday.

The Hurricanes improved to 4-0 for the first time since the 2003-04 season, the last time they reached the NCAA Tournament.

Williams also had a career-high nine rebounds, falling just short of her first career double-double. Her four assists also were a career high.

In UM's last game, Diane Barnes had a career-high 14 rebounds, and she matched that total Saturday. Barnes also scored 12 points for team-high third double-double of the season, and she also played a career-high 35 minutes.

Despite sitting for most of the second half because of foul trouble, UM's Shenise Johnson finished with 20 points, her second 20-point game of the season, and also had four assists. Johnson was 3 for 3 from three-point range.

Freshman Morgan Stroman, a 2009 McDonald's All-American, had eight points and seven rebounds, and Charmaine Clark had six points, seven rebounds and three steals for the Hurricanes.

Amanda Peterson had 14 points for UAB, which was out-time this season, UM had more offensive rebounds (19) than opponent.

The Hurricanes shot 85 percent from the free-throw line.

UAB's seven-point lead at 12-10 in the first half was erased by Johnson's three-point shot, and UM cruised to a 35-22 lead at halftime.

2009-10 Game-by-Game Review

MIAMI 70, UAB 54 - NOV. 21, 2009

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – The University of Miami women's basketball team was too much for Conference USA's UAB Blazers (1-2) as it moved to 4-0 on season with a 70-54 win at the Bartow Arena on Saturday afternoon.

Riquana Williams struggled from the field in the first half, but when Sherise Johnson had to sit most of the second half with foul trouble, the dynamic scorer took over. The Atlantic Coast Conference's leading scorer was held to only three points in the opening half but then scored 15 in the second and was a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line.

TEXAS 76, MIAMI 65 - DEC. 29, 2009

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – The University of Miami Women's Basketball team (10-2) couldn't overcome a Texas Longhorns (9-3) second-half run and fell to their second Big 12 Conference opponent of the season, 76-65, in the Miami Wyndham Holiday Championship, Tuesday afternoon at the BankUnited Center.

Up by seven at the break, Texas opened the second half with a 14-0 run and built a 21-point lead with 16:45 remaining. The Hurricanes were able to cut that lead to 11 points with just over six minutes to play, but were unable to get closer as UT's Kashleen Nash (22 points) and Brittaney Raven (17 points) were able to counter any Miami comeback attempt.

MIAMI 77, MARYLAND 77 - MAR. 11, 2010

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The significance of the stunning victory was not lost on Miami coach Kelle Meyer, whose team had just ended Maryland's 48-game home winning streak in dramatic fashion.

"This isn't a big win unless Maryland's Maryland," Meyer said. "We absolutely know what kind of program this is, and we have a ton of respect for that home winning streak. I'm honored that we were the team that snapped it."

Riquna Williams made two 3-pointers in the final minute, including the game-winner with 2.4 seconds left, to give the Hurricanes an 80-77 victory Thursday night. It marked the first time Maryland lost at Comcast Center since falling to Duke on Feb. 18, 2007.

2009-10 Game-by-Game Review

MIAMI 88, NORTH CAROLINA 60 - FEB. 4, 2010

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Sheneise Johnson had enough of Miami's losing streak.

Johnson had 25 points and 10 rebounds as Miami snapped a three-game losing streak with an 80-60 victory over No. 9 North Carolina on Thursday night.

"The last few games we felt as if we were carrying rocks on our shoulders," Johnson said. "We definitely were very hungry coming off a three game losing streak."

"People don't expect us to win but we do."

Johnson also had six assists and tied a career high with eight steals as Miami won its second game of the season over a ranked team. The Hurricanes defeated No. 13 Florida State Jan. 10.

MIAMI 76, BOSTON COLLEGE 68 - OT - FEB. 28, 2010

CORAL GABLES, Fla. -The University of Miami women's basketball team (17-12, 4-10) overcame a nine point deficit with 1:32 remaining in regulation and pulled away in overtime to defeat the Boston College Eagles 15-14, 6-8, 76-68 Sunday afternoon at the BankUnited Center.

Katie Meyer called a timeout with three seconds remaining and designed a lob play for senior Diane Barnes under the basket. The lob was a tad high for Barnes to control, but she managed to get her fingertips on it and the deflection went to a wide open Morgan Sorman. The freshman made the layup and forced overtime with the scored knotted at 64.

MIAMI 84, NORTH CAROLINA A&T 77: MARCH 25, 2010

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - The University of Miami women's basketball team (20-13) used a huge first half and big defensive plays late in its third round WNIT victory over the North Carolina A&T Aggies (23-11), Thursday night at the BankUnited Center by an 84-77 score.

With both team's offenses pouring in points, it was a pair of back-to-back defensive plays from freshman Morgan Stroman that sealed the victory for the Hurricanes.

A fourtime South Carolina State Champion in high school, Stroman stole an entry pass into the post and went coast-to-coast for the layup. She was fouled on the play and sank the free throw, pushing the Miami lead to 77-69 with 2:37 remaining.

2010 WNIT Semifinal

CAL 73, MIAMI 61 - APRIL 3, 2010

BERKELEY, Calif. — The University of Miami women's basketball team (22-14) advanced further in the postseason than ever in its history, but fell to the Cal Golden Bears (24-14) in the WNIT Championship game by a 73-61 score at Haas Pavilion.

Miami was never able to overcome a 12-point halftime deficit, only getting as close as eight points in the second half.

Sophomores Shene Johnson and Riquana Williams provided most of the offense for the Hurricanes as Johnson scored 21 points and Williams added 20.

Johnson extended her double-figure scoring streak to 37 games and she added seven rebounds and five assists as well.

Chantola Broussard will be recognized at the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament in Greensboro, N. C. in March of 2011 as this season's University of Miami ACC Legend.

Broussard was a member of the Hurricanes from 2000-04 and she still ranks as one of the best players in program history. Her 1,482 points rank seventh all-time at Miami. The Miami native also ranks third with 132 career blocks.

Hurricane Force

From winning games to the 2007 season, the Hurricane Force is on the rise.

Rewind 35 years and you'll find the beginnings of what would blossom into women's basketball at the University of Miami.

From its humble beginnings in 1972-73 with non-scholarship athletes playing on outdoor courts, to more than 500 wins later in 2007-08, with a roster full of recruited talent showcasing their skills in a state-of-the-art facility Hurricanes women's basketball has come a long way.

FROM THE START

In its first two seasons, the Miami women's basketball team competed on outdoor courts and rumor has it that a game was actually rained out. But the players persevered under the program's first head coach, Barry Schimer, and after finishing the inaugural season 2-6, the Hurricanes went on to winning records in each of the next two seasons and finished runner up in the 1975 Florida AIAW State Championship Tournament.

The Hurricanes moved into their first home—the William Lane Campus Sports and Recreation Center—for the 1975-76 season under the program's second head coach Shula Feuer. Just two games into the season, Miami used a 100-20 win over Homestead Air Force Base, to set a school record with the 80-point margin of victory that still stands more than 30 years later.

In 1977-78, Miami's first 1,000-point scorer emerged in Wendy Foote, who averaged a school-record 25.2 points per game as a senior. She would go on to become the first University of Miami basketball player since Rick Barry to sign a professional contract when she signed with the New Orleans Pride of the Women's Professional Basketball League.

MAKING A STEP FORWARD

As the Hurricanes moved toward their eighth season of competition, Lin Dunn was hired from the University of Mississippi to take over the reigns of the Miami women's basketball program. In her nine seasons at the helm of a burgeoning Hurricanes program, Dunn compiled 149 wins and led the team to a school-record six consecutive winning seasons, two 20-win seasons, one Florida AIAW State Championship and two berths in the AIAW Region III Tournament.

The 1979-80 season, was pivotal in the progression of women's basketball at the university, as the team received its first scholarships (seven) and went on to finish 18-16. Miami gained three additional scholarships for the 1980-81 season and completed one of the most successful campaigns in school history, recording the first 20-win season at 24-18. The Hurricanes went on to win their first Florida AIAW State Championship and advance to the AIAW Region III Tournament.

UM received its full complement of 12 scholarships in 1981-82, and was rewarded with a 19-10 record and a second-straight berth to the AIAW Region III Championships. That season, Sylvia Wilson wrapped up her collegiate career as Miami's leader in points (1,713) and rebounds (1,115), and remains the only Hurricane to grab more than 1,000 career boards.

Lin Dunn led the Indiana Fever to the WNBA Finals in 2009.

The inaugural 1972-73 team played outdoors.

A NEW HOME, A NEW SCORING LEADER

With the resurrection of Miami men's basketball in 1985-86, both the men's and women's teams moved into the Knight Sports Complex. As the team continued to develop and battle the top-20 teams, a player named Maria Rivera—who had set a freshman scoring record with 523 points during the previous season—began to emerge as a serious threat for Hurricane opponents.

Averaging 21.4 points per game as a sophomore, Rivera surpassed the 1,000-point scoring plateau in just her second season and would go on to become the first women's basketball player in Miami history to score more than 2,000 career points. She set a school record that would stand for 18 years with a 41-point performance versus Central Florida, while also breaking Rick Barry's school-record of 2,298 points.

Rivera would close her collegiate career as both Miami's all-time leading scorer with 2,538 points and its all-time steals leader with 382.

ROUTE TO THE BIG DANCE

Ferne Labati took over the women's basketball program in 1988 and guided the Hurricanes to a 21-8 record and Miami's first NCAA bid. The Hurricanes traveled to Stillwater, Okla., where they fell to Oklahoma State, 93-69, despite 21-point efforts from eventual All-American Frances Savage and Elaine Harlow.

Labati and the Hurricanes battled to a school-record 25-6 mark in 1989-90, competing the first back-to-back 20-win campaigns in school history, and advanced to their first National Women's Invitational Tournament. That season, Savage averaged 23.6 points per game and set a single-season scoring record with 733 points—and needed just 45 games to become the quickest woman to reach 1,000 points in UM history.

After competing as independents since its inaugural season in 1972, Miami became a member of the New South Women's Athletic Conference in 1990-91, and would go on to post its third-straight 20-win season, finishing with a 20-10 overall record, a 9-3 mark in NSWAC play and the conference title.

DREAMING BIG

The Hurricanes became the 10th member of the BIG EAST Conference and began league play in 1991-92—their "Dream Season". Although Miami's season started and ended with a loss, the Hurricanes put together 30-straight wins in between—going undefeated (18-0) in conference play for the first time in BIG EAST history, winning the BIG EAST Tournament and advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament to finish with a top-10 national ranking.

Following an 84-67 regular-season ending win over Villanova, the Hurricanes moved up to No. 7 in the national polls and Savage was named Women's Basketball Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. The BIG EAST would go on to recognize Savage as BIG EAST Player of the Year, Labati as the league's Coach of the Year and Vicki Rowden and Savage as All-BIG EAST First Team picks. Labati was also heralded as the Kodak/WBCA National Coach of the Year.

The Hurricanes followed up that "Dream Season" with another BIG EAST title in 1992-93 with its school-record fifth-straight 20-win season, as the team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Under Labati's leadership, the Hurricanes would make three more NCAA Tournament appearances and advance to the WNIT twice.

The Hurricanes built a new home, with the opening of the on-campus Convocation Center—now the BankUnited Center—on January 15, 2003. The $48 million facility boasts three stories, 7,000 seats and 200,000 square feet.

WHEN OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

After a 13-year run through the BIG EAST, Miami became members of the tradition-rich Atlantic Coast Conference on July 1, 2004.

Despite a challenging inaugural season in the ACC, Miami advanced to the second round of the ACC Tournament behind the effort of Tamara James—just the second player in NCAA history to lead two conferences in scoring. As a sophomore, James earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors after averaging a league-high 16.6 points per game, and as a junior, she ranked with fifth in the NCAA with an ACC-high 22.3 points per game, earning All-ACC recognition as well as Honorable Mention All-American honors by both the AP and WBCA/Kodak.

In 2005-06, James and the Hurricanes continued to improve under first-year head coach Katie Meier. In her debut, Meier steered the 'Canes to a 17-13 overall record and a 6-8 league mark to place sixth in a conference that would send nine teams to the postseason—including three to the NCAA Final Four. With regular-season wins over several nationally-ranked opponents—and a nearly knocking off then-No. 1 Duke in double overtime—Miami advanced to the postseason for the 12th time in school history, making it as far as the Second Round of the WNIT.

James, who repeated as the ACC's scoring leader as a senior, wrapped up her UM career as the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,406 points and was selected by the Washington Mystics with the eighth overall pick in the 2006 WNBA Draft.

In 2006-07, a new leader emerged in the diminutive Renee Taylor, who carried on James' tradition of leading the ACC in scoring—as the Hurricanes have produced the ACC's leading scorer in all three seasons they have been a member. Taylors' 42 points versus Houston broke Rivera's 1998 single-game scoring record, and she became the 19th member of Miami's 1,000-points club in her final regular-season game versus NC State, and was the sixth Hurricane to accomplish the feat in her first two years with the squad. She finished her two-year career at Miami with 1,025 points.

The 2007-08 campaign saw Taylor's junior college teammate, Maurita Reid take over as the team's go-to offensive threat. In her senior season, Reid helped continue an impressive streak, as the Hurricanes made it 225 straight games with a three-point field goal. Reid accounted for 43 percent of the three pointers Miami scored on the season, sinking 76 shots from beyond the arc.

Meier and her staff brought in a Top 25 recruiting class for the 2008-09 season, highlighted by McDonald's All-American Sherise Johnson. The Henrietta, N.Y. native played beyond expectations in her freshman campaign, leading the Hurricanes to a 13-17 overall record—a four-win improvement from 2007-08. Johnson led her team in virtually every major statistical category on her way to being named to the ACC All-Freshman Team as well as earning All-ACC Honorable Mention. After grabbing three ACC Rookie of the Week awards, Johnson will look to lead the Hurricanes and another top-notch recruiting class into the postseason in 2009-10.

COACHING AWARDS

With the appointment of Katie Meier in 2005 the University of Miami announced just its seventh head women's basketball coach in the program's 34-year history. Meier joined an impressive UM coaching family that includes former legendary coaches Lin Dunn and Ferné Labati.

Labati is UM's all-time leader in career victories, posting an overall record of 303-195 (.608) during her 17-year career from 1988-05. Labati was named the Kodak WBCA National Coach of the Year following the 1991-92 season in which she guided the Hurricanes to a school-record 30 wins with just two losses and a birth into the "Sweet 16" of the 1992 NCAA Tournament.

UM's All-Time Leading Scorer

As one of the most electric scorers ever to step on the court and play at the University of Miami, Maria Rivera left her mark at UM as a four-year standout with the Hurricanes. During her playing career from 1984-88, Rivera reached a level never before achieved at Miami and left UM as the school record holder in several categories, including career points with 2,358.

Rivera came to Miami by way of Canovana, Puerto Rico, where, at just the age of 14, she was named the 1978 Player of the Year by the Puerto Rican Olympic Committee before going on to star on the Puerto Rican 1979 and 1983 Pan American Teams.

From day one she showed an unprecedented desire to achieve at UM. Speaking only Spanish, Rivera borrowed $2,000 dollars from a bank to enroll in an intense fast-paced English program to pass an English equivalency exam required to enroll at Miami, and just three months later she was on campus and playing for the Hurricanes.

Rivera averaged 18.7 points—the seventh highest single-season average in school history—and 5.3 assists, leading the Hurricanes in scoring in 13-of-28 games in 1984-85, her first season at UM. That season she showed what lay ahead on several occasions, including a school-record setting performance against Lamar where she hit 10-of-11 shots from the field and a 33-point outing against Florida. Following the conclusion of the regular season, she was named to the Women's Basketball Yearbook Freshman All-America Team.

The following season she stepped up her game, averaging 21.4 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game. Her 21.4 points per game was the second-highest single-season average in UM history and her 579 points was the third-highest ever at Miami.

Rivera's junior season was highlighted by yet another impressive scoring output, averaging 20.9 points, which ranked third all-time at UM just behind her previous season's mark. That season was full of memorable achievements, including a then-career high 38-point game in UM's opener against Monmouth, but none were more exciting than when she surpassed former Hurricane Sylvia Wilson to become Miami's all-time leading scorer.

Rivera also put together a memorable senior campaign. Needing 29 points to break former men's basketball legend Rick Barry's UM basketball record of 2,298 points, Rivera scored 30 points in the first half of a February 25th contest with Central Florida en route to a then-school-record 41 points to become the University of Miami's all-time leading scorer in both men's and women's basketball.

Upon finishing her career with the Hurricanes, Rivera left as the school record-holder in 16 separate categories—including points (2,358), scoring average (21.1 ppg), steals (382) and field goals made (891) and attempted (1,931) to firmly ensure her place as one of the greatest basketball players to ever play at the University of Miami.

Frances Savage is arguably one of the best players to ever don a uniform at the University of Miami. During her four-year career from 1988-91, Savage etched her name throughout the UM record books. She left as the school's second all-time leading scorer with 2,184 points and first all-time with a career 23.2 scoring average—despite missing all but two games of her senior season.

The 12th child of a household of 13 children, the Fort Lauderdale, Florida native averaged over 30 points per game during her senior season at Sunrise Piner High School and was named the Miami Herald's Broward Player of the Year in 1985 and 1987.

After drawing All-America honors as a high school standout, Savage chose to attend the University of Miami, but was forced to sit out her freshman season in 1987 while fulfilling academic requirements.

Once her opportunity arose in 1988, Savage burst onto the scene at UM, scoring 32 points in her collegiate debut versus Southwest Missouri State—the most points scored by a Miami player in their opening game. She would go on to start and score double figures in all 29 games of the 1988 season, averaging 22.4 points and 9.2 rebounds per game.

As a preseason All-America candidate, Savage's junior season picked up where the 1988 season left off, scoring double figures in all 31 games that season while leading the team in points per game (23.6), rebounds per game (9.5), steals (7.1), free throw percentage (.786) and field goal percentage (.540).

In 1990, Savage opened her senior season with back-to-back 30-point outings, but was lost for the year with a torn ACL suffered in just the second game of the season.

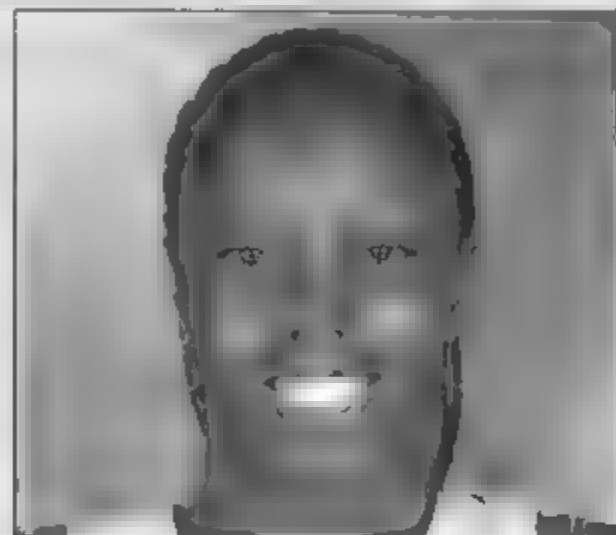

Granted a fifth year of eligibility, in 1991, Savage returned to score 31 points in her first start against in-state rival, Florida. She tied the then-school record with 41 points in UM's win over Providence during the course of the Hurricanes' 30-game win streak.

Averaging 23.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, Savage helped lead the Hurricanes to the BIG EAST Championship title in only their first season in the conference and was named both the BIG EAST and Sports Illustrated Player of the Year, in addition to garnering Kodak All-America honors.

Savage left UM as one of the most decorated athletes in school history, holding nine Hurricane records as well as finishing as the school's second all-time leading scorer, and has since been inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame and the University of Miami's "Iron Arrow" Society—the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the university.

Postseason Results

The Hurricanes have made a total of 11 postseason appearances in school history, earning six NCAA Tournament and five WNIT berths in the program's 38 year history. Miami has an overall record of 10-12 (.455) in postseason tournaments, posting a 2-6 (.250) mark in the NCAA Tournament and a 8-6 (.571) record in the WNIT.

UM's longest run at the NCAA Tournament came during the 1991-92 season when after drawing No. 2 seed in the East Regional behind a 29-1 record and a BIG EAST Championship Title, the Hurricanes advanced to the "Sweet 16" before falling to Vanderbilt 77-67 in Charlottesville, Va.

UM's last NCAA Tournament appearance came following the 2003-04 regular season and the last WNIT berth came just last season when Miami made its deepest postseason run in program history, compiling a 5-1 record and advancing to the Championship game at Cal.

Hurricanes Honors

In the program's 34-year history, the University of Miami has had countless players receive individual accolades. UM has boasted four first or second team All-America selections and 28 first or second team all conference accolades.

Perhaps UM's most decorated player, Frances Savage's name is littered throughout the long list of individual award winners. Savage drew the nation's top honor in 1992 when she was named Sports Illustrated's National Player of the Year and was a two-time All-American as well as the 1992 BIG EAST Player of the Year.

SUPPORT MIAMI HURRICANES WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Join the Tip Off Club

Fans,

After a successful run in last year's WNIT, this team is poised for new heights. As we continue to climb the steps towards the top, we will also continue to display the passion, heart, and all-out energy that makes the MIAMI HURRICANES an exciting team to watch. You can expect to see overwhelming fast-breaks, record-setting three pointers, and aggressive full court defense. I believe this is the most athletic team we have ever assembled at Miami, and it is also a team with great leadership from our juniors, Sylvia Bullock, Shenise Johnson, and Riquana Williams. THIS TEAM DESERVES A CROWD! I need you to join me in an all-out effort to fill the seats in the BankUnited Center. These young ladies WILL RESPOND to your support. They love a crowd, and they love the hugs from the fans after the game. We have made several positive changes in our approach to marketing and attendance, as well as revamping our Tip-Off club. I hope you will pledge your support to this special group, and also take on the challenge of driving new membership. WE are one big family here at THE "U", so let's come together and unite in this effort. See you at the BUC!

Best,

Katie Meunier
